ADMINISTRATOR'S REPORT

Administrator Fruchter began his report by announcing certain changes to the IGB's staff and organizational structure that will become effective on May 1, 2022. Current General Counsel, Agostino Lorenzini, will become a Senior Special Advisor and will be assisting the Administrator in a variety of capacities. Dan Gerber will become the new General Counsel. Rick Harlovic will be elevated to Deputy General Counsel and will remain as the IGB's Ethics Officer. In addition, the IGB is creating a new Gaming Controls and Technology division that is aimed at coordinating, streamlining and broadening the IGB's capacity in several ways. Once fully staffed, the new unit will be involved with internal controls, certification and testing of gaming equipment, oversight of software, involvement with the Self-Exclusion Program, as well as improving licensing compliance across all of Illinois' gaming disciplines. Jared Smith will lead this new division but will also remain in his role as Director of Sports Wagering.

The Administrator also announced that current Deputy Administrator of Investigations, Scott Deubel, will be retiring as of May 13, 2022 after 30 years with the IGB. Administrator Fruchter thanked Scott for his service to the IGB and congratulated him on his pending retirement. The Administrator also noted that Deputy Administrator of Enforcement Sean Brannon will assume Scott Deubel's role within the IGB.

In January 2022, Administrator Fruchter announced that the IGB would have renewed emphasis on ensuring that inoperable VGTs were removed from locations within 72 hours of being out of service. The Administrator noted that the IGB's staff and Terminal Operators have communicated and cooperated well on this topic, which resulted in high levels of compliance. He thanked all parties for working together.

Administrator Fruchter reported that there are currently 7,925 licensed establishments operating approximately 42,696 VGTs. More than five VGTs are being operated in 4,860 of those licensed establishments. In February 2022, VGTs generated Net Terminal Income ("NTI") of $202,080,195 which yielded $68,706,610 in tax revenue. The State received approximately $58,602,699 in taxes, while local municipalities received approximately $10,103,911. Illinois casinos generated Adjusted Gross Receipts ("AGR") of $93,624,249, which resulted in State taxes of approximately $11,521,255 and local host community taxes of approximately $5,290,770. Sports wagering generated AGR of approximately $5.3 million in State tax, with an additional $383,353 going to Cook County. On a combined basis for January and February 2022, Illinois generated total gaming tax of $182,480,300, with the State receiving $151,967,272 and local markets collecting $30,513,028.

Administrator Fruchter concluded his report by noting that the IGB's next regular meeting is not until June 16, 2022 and that it is possible the meeting will be in-person, but it's too early to make that determination.
